FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Renegade Golf Expands Global Reach with Exclusive Distribution at Tucker's Point Club in Bermuda

Bermuda – [August 18, 2024] – Renegade Golf, the pioneering Black-owned golf ball company, is excited to announce its historic entry into the international market with an exclusive distribution partnership with Tucker's Point Club in Bermuda. This milestone collaboration will be unveiled at the prestigious Rosewood Cup, scheduled for Friday, October 11th to Sunday, October 13th, 2024.

As part of this partnership, Tucker's Point Club will become the first venue outside the United States to distribute Renegade Golf's renowned Renegade Mbu golf ball. The Rosewood Cup, one of Bermuda's premier golf tournaments, will serve as the launch event for this landmark occasion, offering participants a world-class golfing experience enhanced by Renegade's high-performance product.

Global Expansion and Retail Growth

Renegade Golf's exclusive collaboration with Tucker's Point Club is just one of many strategic initiatives as the company continues its global expansion. The brand's commitment to innovation, inclusivity, and accessibility has captured the attention of golfers worldwide. This partnership marks a significant step in Renegade Golf's journey as it continues to expand its footprint in both global and domestic markets. By aligning with iconic institutions like Tucker's Point Club and PGA Tour Superstore, Renegade is well-positioned to set new standards in performance and diversity within the sport.

"Our mission has always been to revolutionize the game of golf by creating high-quality products that resonate with today's diverse players," said Kenneth Duncan, CEO of Renegade Golf. "By expanding into major retailers like PGA Tour Superstore and now launching our first international partnership at Tucker's Point Club, we are taking significant steps toward making Renegade Golf a global brand. These opportunities allow us to reach more players and grow our credibility in a space where credibility is key."

A Meaningful Collaboration

Tucker's Point Club, known for its dedication to offering members innovative and luxury products, aligns perfectly with Renegade's vision. The exclusive distribution of the Renegade Mbu Tr3 at the Rosewood Cup underscores both parties' shared commitment to the growth and diversity of the game. As Bermuda's premier golf destination, Tucker's Point Club represents a critical partner in Renegade's journey toward becoming a global player in golf equipment.

Renegade Golf is making history not only as the first Black-owned golf ball company but also as a brand that is building a legacy rooted in performance and inclusivity. The Renegade Mbu ball, engineered for golfers with higher swing speeds, will be available exclusively in Bermuda to Tucker's Point members and Rosewood Cup participants.
